

DHL Express4you - Security Information

Please note the following important security information when sending a shipment using DHL Express4you

Prohibited

The following items are NOT acceptable for transport by DHL under any circumstances for operational and legal reasons.

- Animals
- Antiques (fragile and/or breakable)
- Asbestos
- Bullion
- Cash of any currency
- Firearms (parts and ammunition)
- Furs
- Hazardous or combustible materials as defined in the regulations of the International Air Transport Association
- Human remains, including ashes
- Ivory
- Jewellery
- Illegal narcotics
- Pornography
- Precious metals (including bullion)
- Any item(s), the carriage of which is prohibited by ant law, regulation or statute of any federal, state or local government of any country to or through which the shipment may be carried

Restricted

The following items MAY be acceptable for transport by DHL if the destination country's stated conditions or circumstances are complied with. Here is a list of selected commodities that you should look out for.

- Alcoholic beverages like beer, wine, spirits
- Animal products
- Collectables
- Drugs and pharmaceutical products
- Dry ice
- Fine art
- Flowers
- Industrial diamonds
- Medical samples
- Negotiable instruments
- Non-fragile antiques, fine art
- Perishable items
- Plants and plant products like cotton, seeds, tobacco
- Watches over £100
- Works of art

Shipments may be subject to security inspections. Regulations apply when sending from the UK only. For more information please visit www.dhl.co.uk

